MINUTES OF MARCH MEETING

The meeting opened at 7pm. Connie asked for volunteers to photograph the Easter Basket program and their Clay day program. The Easter Basket program . Gereldene Renkin will be photographing the Clay Day program.

Volunteers are needed for the art camp-that will be every day for one week.

You are reminded to bring your 5 black and white environmental pictures to the next meeting.

Walter reported that we have $3621.90 in the bank with a $12.00 adjustment.

Earlon requested $50.00 to be spent for prizes to be given at our competitions and it was decided to give $60.00.

The Azalea Trail is real pretty at this time and is ideal for photos. Our next competition is Vivid --Brilliant color prints.

The GSCCC convention will be held in Jackson, Mississippi . Registration is requested by Thursday --It will be on April the 5th, 6th, &7th.

The competition was judged - there were 13 prints to b judged from which resulted in a 3 way tie for third place --Jay Renken won First place--Walter Streich Second place-- and Richard Faviell --Third place.

There followed an interesting critique session.

Walter reported on his order of ink from Cannon and getting free print paper from them.

Meeting was adjourned
